THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Choosing to study in another country is a big step. It's a chance to experience something different, meet new people and build a future that can take you anywhere.

Confederation College has been creating opportunities for nearly sixty years.

Studying at Confederation means learning by doing, gaining practical skills and real-world experience that prepare you for your career. It's the opportunity to learn from experienced faculty who want to see you succeed. And it's the opportunity to become part of a welcoming community where people from different cultures, backgrounds and experiences come together.

Thunder Bay offers a unique place to live and learn, where a close-knit community and the natural beauty of northwestern Ontario become part of your Canadian experience. On campus, you'll find people and resources to support you throughout your studies, from academic and career guidance to immigration and wellness services.

Your experience here is about what happens in the classroom, but also about the friendships you'll make, the experiences you'll share and the confidence you'll build as you discover what comes next.

Wherever your journey takes you after Confederation College, the knowledge, skills and connections you gain here can help you succeed.

Your opportunity starts here. We look forward to welcoming you.

Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that we are in the territory of the Anishinaabe peoples of northwestern Ontario. We work and live on the lands of Fort William First Nation, a signatory to the Robinson-Superior Treaty of 1850. We honour their enduring connection to this land and commit to working together for a sustainable future.

We also recognize that our seven regional campuses cross over multiple traditional and Treaty Territories, the historical contributions of Métis and Inuit Peoples, and that our students come to study from all over Turtle Island.

For many International students, learning in Canada includes learning about the histories, cultures, rights and contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis Peoples. It also includes understanding the impacts of colonization, including the residential school system and the ongoing work of reconciliation. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada documented the lasting harms caused by these policies and called on all Canadians and institutions to take action toward a more just and respectful future.

At Confederation College, we are committed to building meaningful relationships with Indigenous communities, supporting Indigenous student success and creating opportunities for all students to learn from Indigenous perspectives, knowledges and ways of being. We invite every member of our college community to join us in this journey of learning, respect, and reconciliation.

Help & Support Services

Elizabeth Bellin

Hello! My name is Elizabeth Bellin, but you can call me Beth. As an International Student Advisor at Confederation College, I'm here to support and guide you throughout your journey as an international student.

I was born and raised in Thunder Bay, but after living in several cities across North America, I'm happy to call this community home again.

I've been supporting international students at Confederation College for several years, and one of the most rewarding parts of my role is seeing students settle in, build confidence and make Thunder Bay their home too.

Whether you have questions about adjusting to life in Canada, navigating College processes, immigration-related matters, or you're simply facing a challenge and aren't sure where to turn, I can help connect you with the information, resources and support you need.

I'm looking forward to welcoming you on campus!

Student Success Centre

Helping you be successful is our goal! We are here to help!

Student Advising: Student Success Advisors (SSAs) provide guidance and support to navigate pathways to academic success.

Accessibility: We provide individual assistance and accommodation for students with permanent and temporary disabilities/medical conditions. Students must self-identify their needs.

Health Centre: Our free on campus health clinic offers a broad range of medical services.

Counselling: Our certified counsellors offer confidential support to gain skills and strategies in all areas of your life.

Tutoring: Our Tutoring Centre offers free, individual and group tutoring from student peers and professionals.
We also provide writing support through our Writing Centre.

WE ARE HERE FOR YOU!

International Questions

INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

1. English language proficiency

English requirements vary by program and we accept several academic tests. Some countries are exempt from a test requirement, however an English course with grade is still required.

2. Post-graduation work permit eligibility

In 2024, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) changed several immigration rules and policies, including limiting the programs in which international students would be eligible to apply for a post-graduation work permit upon graduation. Check which programs are currently PGWP eligible.

3. Wait lists

A program becomes waitlisted when the number of offers has been sent out for the allotted seat available – this varies by program. Applications are still accepted, but a letter of offer is not guaranteed. There is no set timeline to be chosen from the waitlist, as it depends on whether applicants accept their offer or withdraw.

For more details:

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I know what programs are offered in what intake?

You can review what programs are currently open and accepting applications. If the program you want is not showing up, that means it is not available in the chosen term. Not every program runs every intake.

Do I need a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL)?

Yes, all students require a PAL when they are applying for a study permit. The PAL will be requested on your behalf once the first payment is made, according to the fee structure on your offer. It will be uploaded directly to your OCAS profile.

The program I want is not listed in the choices in OCAS. Why not?

Some programs are not open to international students due to various reasons, including being oversubscribed, international applicants not being able to work in the field upon graduation due to policies around certifications, study permit limitations, or PGWP eligibility. If there is a program that is not listed due to PGWP eligibility but you wish to study it regardless, please contact us directly.

I was waitlisted for my chosen program/intake. Will I automatically get admission to the next available intake?

No, we do not automatically push offers for another intake as we do not want to assume your academic plan. Students have three program choices on one application and if you have not used up all three options, you can add another intake choice to express your interest.

How to apply

Next steps to becoming a student at Confederation College

1 Explore your options
confederationcollege.ca/programs/international/
Explore programs, review eligibility/transcripts, and gather all necessary documentation for your application.

2 Apply
Apply from the "Apply as International Student" button on each program page. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis.

3 Accept Your Offer
If you receive an offer, visit the Ontario Colleges Application Service portal to accept your offer. Read your offer letter for your acceptance deadline, payment dates and other valuable information. Make the payment as stated in your LOA to accept your offer.

4 Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL)
After your tuition fee payment is received and processed, the College will request a PAL on your behalf. Your PAL will be issued to your application portal under supporting documents within five days of the receipt being posted. You will receive an email informing you that your PAL is ready for download. Please make sure that your email address in the application portal is correct and valid.
Note: PALs will only be issued to students whose deposit payment is received on time, and as specified in their LOA.

5 Apply for a Visa/Study Permit
Review the IRCC website for details on how to apply for your study permit. If your program requires a co-op/work placement, the co-op letter will be included with your offer letter, and you should apply for a co-op permit alongside your study permit. Upload your visa confirmation letter to OCAS.

6 Look into Housing Options
Two styles of residence options on campus: Spruce and Cedar apartments and Sibley Hall dorms confederationcollege.ca/residence

7 Register for Classes
